Attend this seminar to stay informed about what is happening with workers' compensation in our state. The following will be offered:

- Recent court decisions impacting future cases
- Updates from the medical community
- An overview of the Department's new claim forms

Statistics from our telephone information line have consistently shown that employers require assistance with questions on the employee's choice of physician, modified duty offers, reinstatement, and the effect of workers' compensation on the Family Medical Leave Act. Explanations of these and other various benefits will be provided.
